Session Descriptions

Day 4 - Friday, April 20, 2018

Nipping Corruption in the Bud: What Can be Done for and by Youths

9:00 am – 10:30 am
Room I 2-210

Sponsor: Centre for Social Awareness, Advocacy and Ethics, Inc. (CSAAEINC)

Panellists:

- Godswill Agbagwa (Founder and President, Centre for Social Awareness, Advocacy and Ethics, Inc.) (Moderator)
- Pietronella Van den Oever (Management Team Member and Advisor, Partnership for Transparency Fund)
- Arikana Chihombori-Quao (African Union Ambassador to the United States)
- Chieloka Okonkwo (Network of Effective African Leaders, CSAAEINC)
- Michelle Nwagha (Network of Effective African Leaders, CSAAEINC)
- Deryck Brown (Senior Public-Sector Specialist, Governance Global Practice, World Bank)

This session discusses nipping corruption in the bud as an effective strategy towards tackling corruption. It examines efforts by CSAAEINC and other CSOs to nip corruption in the bud in Africa through youth ethics and anti-corruption programs. It also engages CSOs, World Bank, IMF, government and non-governmental anti-corruption agencies on what can be done for and by youths to nip corruption in the bud.

The IMF and Fragile States: An Independent Evaluation

11:00 am – 12:30 pm
Room I 2-210

Sponsor: IMF Independent Evaluation Office (IEO)

Panellists:

- Charles Collyns (Director, Independent Evaluation Office, IMF) (Moderator)
- Daouda Sembene (Executive Director, Executive Board, IMF)
- Adnan Mazarei (Deputy Director, Middle East and Central Asia Department, IMF)

- Shinji Takagi (Assistant Director, Independent Evaluation Office, IMF)
- Radha Rajkotia (Economic Recovery and Development Team Senior Director, International Rescue Committee)

This session will highlight the IMF Independent Evaluation Office's new report on the IMF and Fragile States. While recognizing the important contributions the IMF has made to restoring macroeconomic stability and building capacity in many of these countries, the report identifies ways in which its effectiveness could be improved further. After a presentation of the report's main findings and recommendations by the IEO, expert panelists will discuss the challenges facing the Fund's fragile state work going forward.
