192-AWA-1 The Kunert hosiery plant at Rankweil in Austria. This plant is one of several medium-sized industrial concerns being modernised with the aid of funds from a $20.765 million WORLD BANK loan made to the Austrian Development Bank (Österreichische Investitionskredit, A.G.) in April 1958. To continue this support for Austrian industry the WORLD BANK made a second loan, of $9 million, to the Development Bank on September 25, 1959 to be relent to private industrial concerns for expansion and modernisation of their plants.
