GENERAL OBLIGATIONS OF STAFF MEMBERS

3.1 The sensitive and confidential nature of much of their work requires of staff a high degree of integrity and concern for the interests of the Organizations. Moreover, as employees of international organizations, staff members have a special responsibility to avoid situations and activities that might reflect adversely on the Organizations, compromise their operations, or lead to real or apparent conflicts of interest. Therefore, staff members shall:

a. discharge their duties solely with the interest and objectives of the Organizations in view and in so doing shall be subject to the authority of the President and responsible to him;

b. respect the international character of their positions and maintain their independence by not accepting any instructions relating to the performance of their duties from any governments, or other entities or persons external to the Organizations unless on secondment to them or employed by them while on leave of absence from The World Bank or the IFC. Staff members shall not accept in connection with their appointment or service with the Organizations any remuneration, nor any benefit, favor or gift of significant value from any such governments or other entities or persons, nor shall they, while in the service of The World Bank or the IFC, accept any medal, decoration or similar honor for such service. Staff members may retain reemployment rights or pension rights acquired in the service of another organization;

c. conduct themselves at all times in a manner befitting their status as employees of an international organization. They shall not engage in any activity that is incompatible with the proper discharge of their duties with the Organizations. They shall avoid any action and, in particular, any public pronouncement or personal gainful activity that would adversely or unfavorably reflect on their status or on the integrity, independence and impartiality that are required by that status; and

d. observe the utmost discretion in regard to all matters relating to the Organizations both while they are staff members and after their service with the Organizations has ended. In particular they shall refrain from the improper disclosure, whether direct or indirect, of information related to the business of The World Bank or the IFC.

3.2 All rights in any work produced by staff members as part of their official duties shall belong to The World Bank or the IFC unless such rights are explicitly relinquished.
Privileges and Immunities

3.3 Staff members shall enjoy, in the interests of their Organizations, privileges, immunities, and facilities to which the Organizations, their officers and employees are entitled under their respective Articles of Agreement or other applicable treaties or international agreements or other laws. Such privileges, immunities, and facilities shall not excuse staff members from the performance of their private obligations or from the due observance of the law. Having regard to the particular circumstances, the Organizations may decide whether, in the interests of the Organizations, an immunity shall be waived or invoked.
