DMV Updates During COVID-19 - August 2020

Local DMVs have adjusted their services to minimize visits at their various locations during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Virginia DMV
- Driver’s licenses and identification cards expiring on or before July 31, 2020, are extended for 90 days, not to exceed October 31, 2020.
- If a credential expires after July 31st, it must be renewed before its expiration date.
- Certain DMV offices have opened for specific services by appointment only as part of a phased reopening plan. Please visit dmvnow.com/reopening for more information.
- Vehicle registrations expiring March-July 2020 are extended for up to 180 days, not to exceed October 31, 2020.
- Virginia DMV updates are online: https://www.dmv.virginia.gov/general/#covid19.asp

District of Columbia DMV
- All driver licenses, vehicle registrations, and vehicle inspections expiring after March 1, 2020 through the end of the public health emergency are extended without penalty until 45 days after the health emergency concludes.
- All service centers are operating on an “Appointment Only” basis entering Phase 2 of the District’s reopening plan. Customers may schedule an appointment online at https://go.nemoqappointment.com/Booking/Booking/Index/DCDMV
- DC DMV updates are online: https://dmv.dc.gov/node/1479901

Maryland MVA
- Driver licenses, identification cards, permits and registrations have been extended until 30 days after the state of emergency has been lifted.
- Select Maryland MVA Customer Service Centers are open by “Appointment Only” until further notice. Customers may schedule an appointment online at https://mvascheduling.mva.maryland.gov/
- Maryland MVA updates are online: https://mva.maryland.gov/Pages/covid-19.aspx

Transportation Security Administration (TSA) on airline travel
- Travelers with a state driver’s license that expired after March 1, 2020, and who are not able to renew at their state driver’s license agency may still use it as acceptable identification at checkpoints.
- TSA will accept expired driver’s licenses or state-issued ID for one year after expiration date.
- TSA updates are online: https://www.tsa.gov/coronavirus.

Social Security Administration (SSA) for Social Security Numbers or Non-Eligibility Letters
- Generally, only non-US citizens authorized to work in the United States by the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) are eligible to receive a Social Security Number (SSN)
- G-4 visa holders do not need a SSN to obtain a driver’s license
- To obtain a non-eligibility (denial) letter in-lieu of SSN, complete and submit SSA Form SS-05 in-person or by mail
- Contact the Washington, DC field office 9am-4pm at 1-866-708-3255
- SSA is accepting appointments for urgent requests, contact SSA at 1-800-772-1213
- SSA updates are online: https://www.ssa.gov/pubs/EN-05-10096.pdf