CR-561-80-1. The expansion of production of cattle, sheep and crops in Bolivia will be assisted by a credit of $7.5 million from the INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION (IDA), an affiliate of the WORLD BANK. The IDA credit will help finance agricultural credit operations by the Bolivian Agricultural Bank (BAB) and commercial banks. BAB's Agricultural and Livestock Division will manage the project.

This is the fourth IDA operation in support of Bolivia's agricultural development. The first two IDA credits, totaling $3.4 million, were made in 1969 and 1970 to finance development of some 300 cattle ranches. A third credit of $6.0 million, approved in 1971, was to assist further livestock development, including cattle ranches in Alto Beni and Chapare and sheep breeding in the Bolivian altiplano.

Among those present at the signing of the credit documents on June 20, 1975, were, from left to right: Mr. Luis Barrios Tassano, Executive Director of IDA for Bolivia; His Excellency Roberto Capriles, Ambassador of Bolivia to the United States; Mr. Adalbert Krieger, Vice President, Latin America and Caribbean Region, WORLD BANK and IDA; and Mr. Luis Añal, Minister Counselor of the Embassy of Bolivia.
