Alpin Hong is a renowned Korean-American pianist, educator and storyteller who often incorporates technology in his performances. As part of the cocktail reception, he will present a program that showcases how music can drive human and technological innovation.

Alpin Hong will perform three pieces:
• “Malagueña” by Ernesto Lecuona
• “Rhapsody in Blue” by Gershwin
• “Time and Space”, a new musical arrangement that will feature traditional Korean Pansori singing by Madilynn Ra and Potomac High School students performing the digital soundtrack on iPads in collaboration with Alpin Hong.
