

INNOVATIONS FOR POVERTY ACTION IRB - USA

IPA IRB-USA
101 Whitney Avenue,
Second Floor
New Haven, CT 06510
humansubjects@poverty-action.org

To:
Paul Gertler, Professor of Economics, Haas School of Business, University of Berkeley
Sebastian Galiani , Professor of Economics, Department of Economics, University of Maryland

From: Wendy Lewis for Innovations for Poverty Action IRB-USA

Date: 12/11/2013

Board Action: Expedited Approval

IRB Protocol #:13December-004

Study Title: Demand for Sanitation in Kenyan Urban Slums

Expiration Date: December 10, 2014

Study Correspondent: Kristianna Post, kpost@poverty-action.org

The above referenced protocol is approved for one year by Innovations for Poverty Action Institutional Review Board #00006083- USA.

It is the Principal Investigator's responsibility to obtain review and continued approval before the expiration date. You may not continue any research activity beyond the expiration date without approval by the Board.

Adverse Reactions: Investigators are required to promptly report any unanticipated problems or complaints to the committee. If the problem is serious, approval may be withdrawn pending IRB review.

Amendments: If you wish to change any aspect of this study, such as the procedures, the consent forms, or the survey instruments, please communicate your requested changes to the Board. The new procedure is not to be initiated until the IRB approval has been given.

The study was found to be of minimal risk and has been approved for one year.

- Surveys must be submitted prior to fielding.
- Sebastian Galiani will be renewing his hs certification.
- The addition of a contact phone number and specification of gift will be added to the consent.

Please retain a copy of this letter with your approved protocol.

Human Subjects Coordinator- IPA IRB