

Borrowing Highlights

Funding Activities

The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD), known as the World Bank in the capital markets, aims to manage its borrowing program by being responsive to investors' needs.

- It issues a range of products designed for different investor groups, chooses timing, currency, and maturity of new issues according to market demand, seeks to price fairly in the primary market, monitors the secondary market performance of its issues, and aims for broad geographic placement to a wide range of investors who trade on different signals.
- The World Bank's mission to fight poverty in a sustainable way, through education, health, environment, and infrastructure make IBRD bonds suitable for investors with investment strategies that aim to maximize social and financial returns called (“socially responsible”, “sustainable”, “ethical”, or “impact”, investment strategies).

Wide Range of Debt Instruments

The World Bank offers a variety of issues ranging from large, liquid global bonds to plain vanilla retail-targeted or local currency bonds to structured notes in maturities all along the yield curve.
