Small area estimation - combining household surveys with Census data

Croatian Bureau of Statistics & The World Bank joined forces to estimate subnational poverty rates

Using a poverty threshold of 23,918.62 HRK (60% median consumption) for the adult- equivalentized CONSUMPTION, the poverty rate in 2011 was 16.3 percent.

Using the at-risk-of-poverty adult- equivalentized INCOME threshold in Croatia of 24,000 HRK (60% median consumption), threshold of 23,918.62 HRK the at-risk-of-poverty rate was 20.4 percent.

Consumption-based poverty map for municipalities, cities, and districts of Zagreb

Consumption-based poverty map for Croatia (NUTS3)

County poverty ranges from 5.9 (City of Zagreb) to 34.3 (Karlovac) percent.

Continental

Adriatic

County poverty ranges from 9.1 (Primorsko-goranska) to 16.9 (Slavonska) percent.

Where do the poor live?

Using a poverty threshold of 23,918.62 HRK for the adult- equivalentized CONSUMPTION.

The counties with the highest concentration of the poor are Osjecko-baranjska and Slavonska-dalmatinska counties.

The city of Zagreb is also home to a considerable number of Croatia’s poor with close to 6.3 percent of the nation’s poor.