Data Process, Management, and Transfer Charts

Paper for Session 4

Nada Hamadeh
Table of Content

1. Small Country Model ........................................................................................................ 3
2. Large Country Model ...................................................................................................... 4
3. Region Model .................................................................................................................. 5
A suggested ICP data process, management and transfer charts are found in the illustrations below. The first one pertains to an ICP operation in a small country, the second one is for an ICP operation in a large country with multiple collection centers, and the last one is for an ICP operation at a regional level.

1. Small Country Model:
2. Large Country Model:
3. Region Model:

![Diagram of Region Model]

Central Module for Data & Metadata Management and Archiving

Prices
- Tool for HHC Data Validation
- Tool for Housing Data Validation
- Tool for Compensation Data Validation
- Tool for Health Data Validation
- Tool for Education Data Validation

National Accounts
- Tool for National Accounts Data Validation
- Tool for Field Prices & N.A. Prices Consistency

Processing & Reporting
- Tool for Reporting
- Tool for Aggregation

Data Transfer:
- Data and Metadata Submission
- Country 1, Country 2, Country 3, Country 4, Country n