Session Descriptions

Day 1 - Tuesday, October 10, 2017

Promoting Responsible Agricultural Investments

3:00 pm – 4:30 pm
Room I 2-210

Sponsor: World Council of Churches (WCC) with Bread for All

Panellists:

- Athena Peralta (Programme Executive for Economic and Ecological Justice, WCC) (Moderator)
- Chantal Mentz (Independent Researcher)
- Rosario Bella Guzman (Researcher and Editor, Ibon Foundation)
- Chris Jackson (Senior Agriculture Economist, World Bank)

Meeting the SDGs entails addressing rural poverty. The session will discuss current thrusts in financing agricultural development in the context of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development. It will look at how IFIs and philanthropic foundations are supporting rural development and promoting responsible agricultural investment. It will share findings from case studies focusing on Mozambique and the Philippines and lessons therefrom.

Measuring Impact – An overview of IFC's new approach to measuring development impact

3:00 pm – 4:00 pm
Room: I2-220

Sponsor: International Finance Corporation (IFC)

Presentation:

- Hans Peter (VP, Economics and Private Sector Development, IFC)

IFC's new Vice President for Economics and Private Sector Development, Mr. Hans Peter Lankes, will give an overview of the new Anticipated Impact Measurement and Monitoring (AIMM), which is meant to better enable IFC to define, measure and articulate the development impact of each project and to focus incentives on the delivery of economic impact. Lankes will explain how AIMM will better allow IFC to judge and communicate results not only from an operational and financial perspective, but also from a development and portfolio perspective.

The World Bank's Approach to Education: Perspectives on the WDR and World Bank policy and lending

3:00 pm – 4:30 pm

Room: I2-250

Sponsor: Global Campaign for Education with Oxfam, Action Aid, RESULTS Educational Fund, Global Initiative for Economic Social and Cultural Rights, EACH Rights (East African Centre for Human Rights) and Education International

Panellists:

- Katie Malouf Bous (Policy Advisor, Education & Health, Oxfam International) (Moderator)
- David Archer (Head of Programme Development & Board Member, ActionAid International & Global Campaign for Education)
- Juliet Wajega (Deputy General Secretary, Uganda National Teachers Union)
- Dr. Francine Menashy (Assistant Professor, Department of Leadership in Education, University of Massachusetts Boston)
- Jaime Saavedra (Senior Director, Education, World Bank)

In light of the World Bank's first-ever World Development Report (WDR) on education, and given the upcoming replenishment of the Global Partnership of Education (GPE) and the early implementation of SDG 4, this session will discuss the relevance of the World Bank's policies and lending for the global education agenda, including its approach to financing, equity, learning, teachers, and the role of the private sector.
