Prof. Wilson Schmidt
Department of Economics

Blacksburg, Virginia 24061

Dear Prof. Schmidt:

I regret that I am unable to comply with the requests for selected Economics Department papers contained in your letter of December 20. ✓

The first three are actually not papers or studies as such, but rather computer programs that were worked out for calculations in connection with internal work at the Bank. Mrs. Huguette Angel, who is responsible for these programs, would be happy to discuss their contents personally with you if you should wish to do so whenever you may be in Washington.

The de Fontenay paper on Multilateral Consolidations of External Debt is at present not available in an unclassified form. Because of the inclusion of certain data obtained on a confidential basis, it would be necessary to obtain the clearance of the sources before issuing an unrestricted version. This may be done at some time in the future, and you may wish to check with us on this matter at a later date.

Sincerely yours,

George Kalmanoff

Dear Mr. Kalmanoff:

Thanks very much for the paper on the coffee economy and for the list of economics departments' studies.

I have been attempting to do some work on debt service problems, following up some work I published in 1964-65. I would be very much interested in the following papers:

- Development Debt Model, Angel (No. 27)
- Grant Element Program, Angel (No. 29)
- Kenya Debt Study, Angel (No. 30)
- Multilateral Consolidations of External Debt, 1956-1967,
DeFontenay (NO. 39)

These are computer Programs; not Papers. & consequently cannot be read out side.

- for internal use
- contains sensitive data
- might eventually be declassified with approval of parties concerned

Still in preparation & will be issued as a 'Confidential Report';

Mr. George Kalmanoff

I hope it doesn't cause you too much trouble to determine whether or not these might be available. If I seem to be asking too much, my priority need is for the DeFontenay paper which is an area where I am having the greatest trouble finding the facts.

Sincerely yours,

We spoke this morning about the Economic Department's quarterly report on Status of Studies.

I mentioned to you that we have just prepared a revised list of national development plans and will be sending this document to a number of libraries and planning organizations. It would be useful if you would include a notice that this list of national development plans has been prepared by the Planning Unit of the Development Services Department and that while the supply lasts, copies can be obtained from this office.

I attach a copy of this report for your information.

I am pleased to inform you that your library has been added to our standard mailing list for EC Reports. A similar arrangement is, however, not practicable in the case of Economics Department Working Papers. I suggest therefore that you make a definite request for the particular Working Papers which interest you as you receive our "Status of Studies" periodically.

We do not at this time wish to be on the mailing list for your Center Discussion Papers. We would like, however, to be informed of new Discussion Papers as they are issued, so that we can request only those papers that are particularly relevant to our work. Please address your announcements to Mr. Kamarck at this address.

At this time, I would like to request a copy of Discussion Paper No. 44, "Is Economic Development a Subject?" by Prof. L. G. Reynolds for Mr. Alexander Stevenson, Deputy Director of this Department.

This is in response to your letter of November 2 to Mr. Okurume. By separate surface mail, we are sending the first four items you list. The first part under the number EC-152a, dated February 28, 1968, and titled "The Structure of Protection in the Industrial Countries and its Effects on the Exports of Processed Goods from Developing Countries", has been completed, but since you may already have this, I have not included it, as copies are in very short supply. ✓

Modification in "Status of Studies" Format

1. The section entitled "Scientific Programs" in "Status of Studies - 4th Quarter, 1968" gave rise to considerable confusion. Items listed in this section are not papers but computer programs. Many people, including Executive Directors, understood them to be papers and flooded us with requests which could not be filled.
2. To minimize such misunderstanding in future, I propose the following:
 - (a) This section should be excluded altogether from the "List of Studies Completed" which is distributed to Executive Directors;
 - (b) In the "Status of Studies", this section should appear as an appendix after Part III.
 - (c) Wherever the section appears, it should have a footnote to the effect that the items included are not papers but computer programs and are announced for staff information only.

In response to your letter of November 15 to Mr. Kamarck, this is to let you know that we are dispatching by separate surface mail, Items 8 (EC-164), 16 (Working Paper 23), and 17 (the chart book). Items 29 and 30, however, are listed under Scientific Programs. These are not papers to be read but computer programs, which have been listed for staff information. They are available for use in calculations by people engaged in quantitative studies of the type described in the list.

Additional Remarks on Status of Studies - October 1968

1. Mr. Datas' draft on "Pulp and Paper Industry" is now with the Division Chief for review.
2. Mrs. Ryshpan - "Background Note on Copper". This study has been delayed because of the priority which the Division has been giving to the Commodity Stabilization Study.
3. Mr. Behrman - "Study of World Market for Rubber". In a letter of September 30, Mr. Behrman informed Mr. Hawkins that a draft of the study should reach the Bank by the end of October, although mid-November might be a more reasonable date. It is therefore still being expected soon.
4. Mr. de Fontenay - "Multilateral Consolidations of External Debt, 1956-1967". This study is not up for consideration as an Occasional Paper. It was only his expectation that it would be considered. In fact, no decision whatsoever has been reached regarding the form in which that study is to be issued.

Dear Mr. Kamarck:

Thank you very much for arranging to send the latest issue of the Status of Studies which I know is of interest to the research staff here at the Center. I do hope that we are on a mailing list to receive future issues as they appear.

If at all possible, we would also like to receive the Working Papers, as well as those having an EC number, as they are issued and request that consideration be given to adding the name of the Center to your mailing list for these studies. We would appreciate it if all material could be mailed to the following address:

While the Joint Bank Library already receives Center Papers, Yale Economic Essays and, by special arrangement since they do not circulate widely, the Center Discussion Papers, it occurs to me that the Discussion Papers may be of particular interest within the Economics Department. If so, we would be glad to add your name to our mailing list, and I've enclosed a list of completed papers for your examination.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration of our requests,

Dear Mr. Rogers,

In answer to your letter of October 28, 1968 I wish to point out that the "Status of Studies - 4th Quarter 1968" is the first issue of its kind to include a list of "Scientific Programs" and as we realize it now, a note of explanation should have been included.

Scientific programs refer to Scientific Computer Programs. Those were written to answer specific needs of some economist or econometrician engaged in some economic study or project evaluation.

Our purpose in publicizing the Scientific Programs was to make economists throughout the World Bank aware of the existence of such computer programs for hope they might avail of them when conducting similar studies.

The only printed material we have (besides programs' listings) consists of very short write ups describing the assumptions used or equations programmed. I do not think those can be much help to you and therefore I am not sending you any.

Dear Mr. Brewster:

Your letter to the Librarian has been referred to me, and this is to let you know that many of the documents you request from the 2nd Quarter Status of Studies have been collected and dispatched by separate surface mail. We could not send you selections from the "In Progress" section, except the "Walstedt-Datas - Demand for Steel - April 1968"; this was completed, but has a new title, "Forecasting Steel Demand in Developing Countries", June 28, 1968. One other study is out of print, but will be issued as an Occasional Paper No. 6, and will be distributed by The Johns Hopkins Press, Baltimore. This is entitled "Notes on Mechanics of Growth and Debt", by Benjamin B. King.

I might mention that Mr. E. Zapotocky of UNCTAD's Research Division requested copies of certain studies from the 4th Quarter list, and perhaps you can coordinate your requests from future lists, and share copies with others in UNCTAD.

Dear Andy:

Thank you very much for sending me a copy of the Bank's research activities. I would very much like to be on the regular mailing list of people to whom this document is sent. You are doing much that interests us in our work at the Center and in our research in the department here. And besides we like to know what the Bank is doing -- and we hope the Bank finds our stuff useful.

Bob de Vries visited us recently, and gave a first class discussion of a wide range of issues. We hope to persuade other Bank people -- such as the Director of the Economics Department -- to visit us in the near future.

Thanks again and best regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Andy,

Thank you very much for the bundle of documents requested by Mr. Lynch. These will be very useful.

I must apologize for never having answered your letter of 18th July, enclosing a copy of "Status of Studies - Third Quarter - 1968". I am afraid that there may have been some crossed wires here about agreeing which of your documents we would particularly like to see; but I hope that we have now got this sorted out. In any case, we certainly have the greatest interest in seeing, as soon as possible, any material on techniques of project appraisal. For my part, I retain my interest in attempts to assess performance, and also in material, both statistical and methodological, on debt.

I was hoping to get over to Washington for the Annual Meeting, but Geoffrey Wilson put a stop to that. However, I hope that there will be a chance to make the trip before too long.

I was very pleased to be approached by Mr. Hamilton on the possibility of joining the staff of the Pearson Commission. However, it would have been very difficult, for personal reasons, to pull up my roots once again. It is going to be fascinating to see what they can come up with.

Yours,

Phil

Dear Mr. Stevenson,

During a visit to the World Bank last month, the Trade Centre Librarian, Mrs. M.T. Artaud, contacted Mr. Samir K. Bhatia, of your Economics Department, and requested that the Centre be put on the Bank's mailing list for the "Status of Studies" as well as for the actual commodity and country studies prepared by your Department.

Mrs. Artaud was informed by Mr. Bhatia that a formal, written request should be sent by the Centre to this end.

In view of the importance of your reports for the research carried out by the International Trade Centre for the benefit of the developing countries, I should be grateful if you could give your favourable consideration to the above request.

Yours sincerely,

Economics Department's Status of Studies

Attached is a copy of the current issue of Status of Studies -- 4th Quarter, 1968 which we are just distributing. This is distributed to economists in the Bank and to other institutions, including U.N. agencies, Regional Development Banks, and research institutions both in developing and developed countries. The main object of this publication is to keep others working in the field of economic development informed on our research efforts. You might also be interested in receiving it.

The report is divided by subject matter as listed in the table of contents and by stage of completion: Part I - Completed, pp. 1-7; Part II - In Progress, pp. 8-18; Part III - Planned, pp. 19-22.

The central orientation of these studies is applied research on problems coming up in the Bank Group's work. While some of these may be of interest to you, the market for which this work was intended in the past was the other departments of the Bank (as well as the regional banks, aid agencies, and development economists elsewhere in the world). You will recall, for example, that in population economics our work was initially directed to preparing a kind of vale mecum for the area department economists in this field.

Dear Sir,

We have just seen the quarterly report on the Status of Studies (2nd quarter April 1st, 1968) of the IBRD and find that it includes a number of studies which are of much interest to us, especially in view of our new programme in Trade Expansion, Economic Cooperation and Regional Integration. We should be grateful if you would be so kind as to arrange for us to receive, as soon as it is possible, copies of the studies which are described in the attached list.

Yours sincerely,

Price Determination for Market Clearance

Regarding your query about tables on the above subject, where you would like to look up the necessary price change when supply, demand and their price elasticities are given, I am not aware of any available tables.

The formulation of "price for market clearance" is quite simple as you can see from the appended note. However, for tabulation we need at least three variables $\frac{S-D}{D}$, η_s and η_d i.e., ratio of the difference between supply and demand to demand, and the elasticities of supply and demand. Since the number of combinations of these variables could be very large, tables would not be practical. In any case, the formula is so simple that it can be readily applied whenever necessary without undue difficulty in computation.

Price for Market Clearance

Problem: Given supply, demand and their price elasticities, what would be the required price change to clear the market, i.e. make supply and demand equal?

Solution: By definition,

$$\frac{\Delta S}{S} = \eta_s \frac{\Delta P}{P} \quad \text{and} \quad \frac{\Delta D}{D} = \eta_d \frac{\Delta P}{P}$$

where S, D = Supply and Demand

η_s, η_d = Price elasticities of Supply and Demand

P = Price (assumed equal for both Supply and Demand)

ΔP = Change in price

$$\text{Now, } \frac{S + \Delta S}{S} = \frac{\eta_s \Delta P + P}{P}$$

$$\text{and } \frac{D + \Delta D}{D} = \frac{\eta_d \Delta P + P}{P}$$

Since for market clearance we must have $S + \Delta S = D + \Delta D$ for $P + \Delta P$, it follows that

$$\text{or, } \frac{S - D}{D} = \frac{\Delta P (\eta_d - \eta_s)}{\eta_s \Delta P + P}$$

$$\text{or, } \frac{S - D}{D} = \frac{\Delta P (\eta_d - \eta_s)}{\eta_s \frac{\Delta P}{P} + 1}$$

By simple algebraic manipulation,

$$\text{or, } \frac{\Delta P}{P} = \frac{k \left(\frac{S - D}{D} \right)}{(\eta_d - \eta_s) - \eta_s \left(\frac{S - D}{D} \right)}$$

Example: Suppose, Supply = 1545 (quantity or value)
 Demand = 1500 (" ")
 η_s and η_d = +.2 and -.3 respectively

Hence required price change

i.e., price will have to go down from its current value by 5.93% to clear the market.

Many thanks for your letter of 16th August. I find your quarterly "Status of Studies" very interesting, and should be most pleased to receive future issues.

I can appreciate your not wanting to send complete sets of your reports to a large mailing list, but I should be grateful if you would send me copies of your Economics Department Working Papers, numbers 13, 14, 15, 18, 19, 20 and 21, and EC-162. In the List of Studies Completed, 1962-1968 I noticed Working Papers 8, 9 and 12 and EC-130, 138, 152a, 155 and 159 which would be of great interest to our staff if you still have copies available.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Fletcher:

Thank you for your letter of August 7. I am glad that you have found our studies of interest.

Since this Department issues a large number of reports on varied subjects, it is not our practice to send out copies of all studies on a regular basis. However, I have placed your name on the mailing list for our quarterly publication "Status of Studies" which contains a list of all studies undertaken by this Department. I am enclosing a copy of this quarter's issue for your information, and if you are interested in receiving a copy of any of the studies listed in Part I of this document, please let me know.

Thank you for showing interest in our work.

You are kind enough to invite me to let you know if I would be interested in receiving copies of any of the studies listed in Part I. I would indeed be interested to receive copies of Nos. 5, 6, 7, 8, 10 and 11, and would be most grateful if they could be sent to me.

1. Thank you for your memorandum of August 9, from which I was very pleased to learn that you have found the studies prepared by the Economics Department useful.

2. With regard to your enquiry concerning the translation of our studies into French, I am pleased to inform you that two of our recent studies are at present being translated into French, i.e., "Past and Prospective Trends in the World Aluminum Industry" and "Commodity Price Trends, 1968 Edition". In making a decision as to those studies to be translated, account is taken of the nature, scope and subject of the study. Normally, for example, studies of a very technical nature are not translated.

3. However, a number of the studies, appearing in the List of Economics Department Studies Completed, may at a later stage be published as World Bank Occasional Papers, and it is likely that these Occasional Papers will be translated into French at that time. For example, World Bank Occasional Paper No. 3, which is an Economics Department study, is now being translated into French.

4. Should you have any suggestions as to studies which you feel might usefully be translated, then please let me know.

Dear Mr. Bhatia,

In Mr. Salamon's absence I wish to reply to your letter of 18 July with which you enclosed a copy of the revised "Status of Studies - 3rd Quarter - 1968". I wish to note particularly your reference stating that if we are interested in receiving any of the studies listed in Part I these will be made available to us. In looking over the list, I believe that a number of these studies would be of interest to us, but I will be writing you later, more specifically, on this because at this time I would like to know whether the list of studies shown under Section I, all of which have also been issued, are similarly available.

Thank you again for your co-operation and looking forward to hearing from you, I remain

Status of Studies

1. I should like to raise, for your consideration, the suggestion that an additional section, "Scientific Programming" be added to our Status of Studies.
2. As you know, the Statistical Services Division has a number of Programs available in the Division (which are of general interest in the Bank) and they have experienced difficulty in keeping potential users of these Programs, in different parts of the Bank, informed of their existence.
3. In view of this, I discussed this matter with Mr. Tiemann who agreed that it would be a good idea to include a brief description of these Programs in our Status of Studies, which is now distributed to economists throughout the Bank.
4. Mr. Tiemann is preparing, for consideration, a list of Programs available in his Division which are of general interest in the Bank to be included in the Status of Studies.
5. Could you please let me know how you feel about this?

Dear Sirs,

We have recently received copies of two of the unpublished studies by members of the I.B.R.D./I.D.A. Economic Department: numbers EC 128 and 129.

This new University has a lively and rapidly expanding Department of Economics with particular research interests in economic development. In the Library we are anxious to collect original material which will be of use to our staff and students.

Your studies are of great interest to our readers, and I should be most grateful if you would send me copies of any other studies which are available, and add this address to your mailing list for future reports.

Yours faithfully,
