

Identifying data requirement for youth employment analysis

Improving the availability and quality of individual level data on women and youth in LSMS
Rome 28 – 29 November

Furio Camillo Rosati

Labour market participation and employment characteristics

- Basic information on activities and status
- Work and employment
- Involvement in nonfarm activities
- Formal and informal employment
- Employment of adolescents
- Shocks
- Non economic activities and time use modules

Basic information on activities and status

1. Aggregate labor market indicators, persons aged 15-24 years, by residence, sex, and age group
Population category		% of population					% of active pop.
		Labor force participation	Education participation	Inactive and out of school	NEET	Employment ratio	Unemployment rate
Total
Residence	Urban Rural
Sex	Male
	Female
Urban	Male
	Female
Rural	Male
	Female
Age group	15-19
	20-24
Regions

Employability of youth

- Education
- Skills
- Skill matching
- Employability and gender
- Disabilities
- Health and risky behavior

Transition from school to work and unemployment duration

- Optimal school leaving time
- School to work transition
- Duration of unemployment

Pathways to employment

- Search channels
- ALMP
- Identifying youth preferences

And..

- Migration
- Community level information
- Integration of household surveys with other sources