Present Position:

Named Full President for a five-year term in March 1968, Minister of Defense and Minister/Commander of the Army.

Previous Activities and Functions:

With war's end, Soeharto remained with the Indonesian army, rising steadily through various grades to become deputy chief of staff shortly after the Dutch withdrew from the country. He was in command at KORSTAD, the army headquarters, at the time of the 1965 coup and narrowly escaped being killed. There followed a period in which Soeharto and his associates gradually took over the authority of President Sukarno. In July the Indonesian Congress authorized Soeharto to form a new Cabinet, and on 25 July 1966 he assumed the positions of Chairman of the Cabinet Presidium, First Minister for the Defense and Security Sector, and Minister/Commander of the Army. In March 1967 the Peuples' Consultative Assembly formally removed Sukarno from the Presidency and named Soeharto "Acting President" until elections could be held.

Mr. Christoffersen,

This is just to confirm the arrangements which have been made for Mr. McNamara to meet with Ministers when he visits London on November 11th and 12th.

Tuesday, November 11

1.30 p.m. Lunch with the Chancellor of the Exchequer at 11 Downing Street.

4. - p.m. Call on the Foreign Secretary at the Foreign Office

Wednesday, November 12

As I have mentioned to Mr. McNamara, Mrs. Hart, the Minister of Overseas Development, will be in Rome for the F.A.O. conference on November 11 and 12. She will look forward to meeting Mr. McNamara if he decides to attend the D.A.C. meeting in Paris. Alternatively, she has in mind the possibility of visiting Washington in late November or early December.

I also mentioned to Mr. McNamara that Mr. Denis Healey the Minister for Defence, will be in Washington between 10th and 17th November and will accordingly not be in London at the time of Mr. McNamara's visit.
