

THE WORLD BANK GROUP IN BELARUS

WHAT CHANGES WILL BELARUS SEE BY 2022?

324,000

people will get access to clean drinking water

79,000

people will receive reliable heat and electricity generated from renewable biomass

100

administrative procedures will be performed online to cut red tape for businesses

50

of the largest state-owned enterprises will openly publish financial statements in accordance with international standards

2,100,000

tons of reductions in carbon emissions per year

150

micro, small, and medium enterprises will access finance

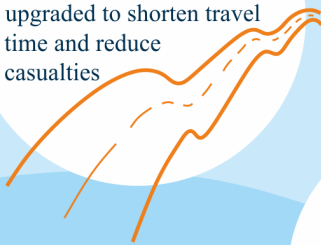

All regions in Belarus will use e-prescriptions in the health sector

154 km

of a road between Minsk and Grodno will be upgraded to shorten travel time and reduce casualties

1,180,000

megawatt hours of energy savings

25,000

students will study in modernized schools in rural areas and small towns

Citizens' budget

will be published annually containing information on state budget

100%

of health facilities will be able to exchange patient summaries electronically

RESULTS ON THE GROUND

WORLD BANK GROUP

Follow us on Facebook  WorldBankBelarus