INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION (IDA), Washington, D.C. 20433

CR-124-EC-1 A ten-year educational development plan initiated in 1964 by the Government of Ecuador, aimed at modernizing the system and relating it more directly to the country's manpower needs, will be assisted by a credit of $5.1 million from the INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION (IDA).

The IDA project will support a priority program of secondary school improvement and expansion. In particular it will help to meet middle-level manpower requirements of industry, agriculture and education. The IDA credit will help to finance the construction or expansion, furnishing and equipping of 28 secondary schools. Altogether the schools involved will provide for an enrollment of 19,600, an addition of 13,100 new places.

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (Unesco) assisted in the identification, preparation and appraisal of the project under the Bank/Unesco Cooperative Program.
