Annual Report 2017

The International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD), the International Development Association (IDA), the International Finance Corporation (IFC), the Multilateral Investment Guarantee Agency (MIGA), and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID) are the institutions that make up the World Bank Group.

The World Bank Group is one of the world's largest sources of funding and knowledge for developing countries, and is committed to reducing poverty, increasing shared prosperity, and promoting sustainable development.

In fiscal 2017, IBRD, IDA, IFC, and MIGA collectively provided nearly $59 billion in loans, grants, equity investments, and guarantees to partner countries and private businesses—including to multiregional and global projects.

THE WORLD BANK
IBRD • IDA

The World Bank is comprised of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (IBRD) and the International Development Association (IDA), and it is committed to the goals of ending extreme poverty and boosting shared prosperity, and to achieving both goals in a sustainable manner.

Owned by its 189 member countries, the World Bank is a global development cooperative. It is the largest development bank in the world, and it provides financing, knowledge, and convening services to help client countries address their most important development challenges.

The World Bank is solutions-oriented, focused on clients, accountable for quality results, and dedicated to financial integrity and cost-effectiveness. It is committed to improving the lives of roughly a billion people now living in extreme poverty.

Note:

As of fiscal year 2017, new sector and theme categories have replaced the previous taxonomy as part of an internal data modernization effort. The data presented here reflects this new taxonomy.

Theme categories are not mutually exclusive; therefore, shares may sum to more than 100 percent of project financing and cannot be represented as a pie chart.

As a result of rounding, numbers in the following figures may not add to totals, and percentages in figures may not add to 100.

All dollar amounts reported are current U.S. dollars.
